DOMESTIC CATTLE

The Ayrshire Came to Nova Scotia in 1821

Although the Spaniards may have introduced cattle into the western hemisphere during the 16th century, Canada may claim to have the honor of being the first part of America north of the Gulf of Mexico to receive domestic cattle. The Plymouth Father-did not have any until 1623. Up to 1724, New France and Acadia together boasted 25,000 cattle. From the year 1831 the growth of herds in Canada was rapid. Until 1840 Lower Canada held premier place, after which Upper Canada rapidly overhauled her rival province, with the result that in 1841 Upper Canada had 481,640 head against 328,370 in the lower province, with 69,000 in New Brunswick. 119,400 in Nova Scotia, 60,000 in Prince Edward Island and about 7,000 in the Prairie province.
Between 1871 and 1901 the growth of cattle herds in all provinces excepting Nova Scotia was steady, the total in all Canada in 1901 being 2,468,575. The coming of the cross bred breeds that comprise this country's herds is of interest. Next to the French and United States cattle the Ayrshire was introduced. Through the instrumentality of Lord Dalhousie they came to Nova Scotia in 1821.
They were imported into Ontario, by Mr. J. W. Frest in 1840, and it is that large numbers came to Ontario and Quebec. The Jersey breed arrived first in 1839, when Mr. Harrison Stephens of Montreal stocked the farm of his two sons with herds from that island. The Guernsey breed was introduced by the late Hon. John Abbott in 1878. The Holstein, or Holstein-Friesian, came in 1823, five Ontario farmers embarking on the enterprise at the same time. Pure bred Shorthorns came in 1825 into New Brunswick, and the year following several Ontario farmers imported them.

Mushroom Mines

Abandoned mines in Akron, New York, are being profitably used in growing mushrooms. The mines were damp, cool, and dark, and a shrewd man saw that they were ideal places for mushroom culture—better even than cellars in certain ways. Three crops a year are harvested from these supposedly useless mines.

Your Own Druggist Backs This Laxative

If you only knew as much as we and those who have used them do about Hazzell's Laxative, you would be as enthusiastic about recommending them as we are. They taste just like candy and act so easily and pleasantly that taking them is a pleasure.
Hazzell's Laxatives have a splen-dorous, cleansing and strengthening effect upon the bowels. They help free the system and keep it free from the ailments that result from irregular or inactive bowels. They do this gently, without griping, nausea, purging or excessive looseness. In a short time they usually make unnecessary the continued use of physic. We don't ask you to take our word for this. We want you to make us prove it and act on our word.
Buy a box of Hazzell's Laxative. It is thoroughly satisfied tell us and we will return your money without question. In vest pocket tin boxes; 10c, 25c, 50c.
You can buy Hazzell's Laxative only at The Hazzell Store, and in this town only of us. Suggett Bros., Mirror, Alta.

SALE OF PRODUCTS OF MIXED FARMING

Where the City Comes in on the Question of a Wider Market For This Produce

The diversified products of mixed farming, such as dairy supplies, poultry, eggs, vegetables, etc., are perishable to a much greater extent than the products of grain farming. The question naturally arises, therefore, where will the products of the mixed farm of the West be sold? The market must be near at hand to get the best results, so many of the products of the diversified farmer cannot be shipped to advantage over long distances. The Saskatchewan Farmer call attention to the market problem in its August issue. It emphasizes the fact that production must not be allowed to get too far ahead of marketing facilities. To quote the Saskatchewan farmer: "Forty farmers mixed, tributary to a village with a population of 100 cannot find a home market for all the butter, eggs, potatoes, and vegetables that they could readily produce. If 50 per cent. of the farmers in Saskatchewan engaged in mixed farming they would soon glut the markets of every city, town and village in Saskatchewan. It is quite evident that the tide of mixed farming is rising. Not only are many farmers producing for sale other products than grain, but a large number are now supplying their own wants in the way of butter, eggs, meat and vegetables.
Those who are doing so are very materially reducing the cost of their living. The question is: Are we preparing for a full tide of production of mixed farming products?"

The development of manufacturing centres throughout the Prairie Provinces will provide the best kind of market for the products of the new mixed farms. It is well that attention is being directed to marketing facilities this early in the development of mixed farming. Efforts should be made to have the products of the farm reach the tinner in the new Western factory by the most direct route and in the shortest time. Eliminate the middleman should be the slogan of the mixed farmer and his urban customer.

Factory growth in the West will be more rapid than ever in the next ten years under the present trade policy, and it is altogether likely that the host of workmen, who will be required to man the new industries, along with their wives and families, will consume all the food supplies the Western farmer can raise.

Blue Amberol Record

No musical-mechanical triumph has approached this remarkable invention of Edison. The new composition of which it is made catches and holds the natural beauty of tone of the world's greatest singers, orchestras and bands, and holds it after you have played it over 3,000 times.

The Blue Amberol is a perfectly practically unbreakable record that reproduces in an amazing way the art of the performers. Don't miss the opportunity to hear it played at some

Lister Gasoline Engines :: Melotte Cream Separators

A Leading firm of Contractors (name and address on application) sent an expert to the Toronto Fair, 1913, to buy the best Gasoline Engine on the grounds. After a careful examination and comparison with others he bought a LISTER 7 H. P. EN-GINE.

THE LISTER GASOLINE ENGINE

The most reliable and best value. It starts instantly—every time—in batteries to run down. Self-feeding—no oil cups to fill, no oil wasted. Self-regulating at all loads. No attention needed when at work. Fitted with aluminum—because it runs throughout. No habit metal to wear and run out, and cause trouble.
In a word, the best engine on the market (a 5 h. p. and a 7 h. p. in stock, come and see them).

Also Agent for Massey-Harris Gasoline Engine and Cream Separator.
